The Men Against Domestic Violence

Conference and Expo

Presented by

Them-Us.com and Lanier Interactive

We are in the process of witnessing an epidemic across the nation. That epidemic is not only domestic violence but it is the increase in domestic violence related deaths. In Florida domestic violence homicide is up 15.6%. Domestic violence manslaughter is up 71.4%.

This problem needs to be attacked and we need to start employing multiple methods to defeat this epidemic. Them-Us.com in conjunction with Lanier Interactive are presenting the Men Against Domestic Violence Conference a full day event that not only talks about the effects of domestic violence and how to get help but how the abuser can take control and change their lives. The conference will consist of programs and organizations that can provide help to individuals as well as couples. Some of our current speakers include but are limited to, The Spring of Tampa Bay, Dr. David Thomas, Stann W. Givens of the Givens Divorce Law Group Tampa PD and more. We will use practical examples as teaching tools along with lectures and personal accounts. Our goal is to provide a positive impact of change to individuals and families as we try to stop the cycle of domestic violence and we would like your support. ABC Action news Positively Tampa Bay segment will conduct a pre-conference interview September 15th to highlight the conference and our mission.

We can't accomplish these goals alone we need dedicated sponsors that can help us attack this cycle of violence. We need your support to make this conference a success and help put a stop to all types of domestic violence. Choose the sponsor package that works for your organization, thank you so much for taking a stand against domestic violence.
